"you can do anything, if . . ."

The little Trojans, while only 24 strong accomplished many things during the fall of '72. The team improved from a 3 and 3 record in 1971 to a 3 victories and 1 loss record in 1972. They scored 52 points to their opponents' 37, as they defeated Benzie, St. Francis, and Leelanau, suffering their lone loss to the Vikings of Cadillac. The team was coached by John (Skinny Cat) Lober, and Joe Neihardt.

you want it badly enough"

The JV football team showed improvement over the '71 season although their record remained a dismal 2 and 6. They had a number of games well in hand, until that pass interception or fumble, the one play that beat us. We managed to lose 3 games because of a single play. The team was physically fit and was capable of hitting very hard. Coached by Bob Lober, Bob Lewallen, and Dave Meintz, the JV's gained much experience. THINK OWOSSO!

trojans win l.m.a.c. crown

The LMAC football champs of nineteen hundred and seventy-two finished their gridiron season with another successful record under head coach Jim Ooley. The team although riddled by early season injuries made a startling comeback despite a tough conference loss at Muskegon Catholic Central. The hope of bringing another football crown home to Traverse City was very dim, but instead of giving up the Trojans showed what they were made of by winning their last four games defeating Grand Haven, number one rated class A Muskegon, Benton Harbor and Grand Rapids city league champs — Grand Rapids Catholic Central. The Trojans ended the season with 6 victories and 3 defeats; two nonconference games and the one conference loss to Muskegon Catholic Central.

Traverse City's all time conference record now stands at 39-13-2, and our overall record is now 75-22-5. After the first 12 years of being in the LMAC the Trojans have won 6 championships. 1972 statistics show that we dominated the conference in total offense 280.6 yards to Muskegon's 269.2 yards. Our defense, 1st against the rush and third overall. We outscored our opponents 192 to 120 with our best quarter being the second. In yards gained we covered 3,144 yards to our opponents 2,092. It was a memorable season never to be forgotten!

trojan golfers— real swingers

The Trojan Golf teams finished the 1972 season with a combined J.V.-Varsity record of 11 victories and 8 defeats. The varsity record was 6 and 7 which gave the J.V.'s a 5 and 1 record.

The varsity team showed that they were a little GREEN, until they were a FAIRWAY through the season. But things really got ROUGH as it seemed they needed a little more IRON in order to keep PUTTING along. They didn't get TEED OFF though, and ended their 1972 DRIVE with two more victories. Of course a big factor in '73 will be returning lettermen, as coach Jim Raymond will lose only 4 seniors of the '72 team.

trojan harriers gain experience.

The Varsity Cross Country team went through a transitional season in 1972, winning only two dual meets out of ten. Joe Le Mieux replaced Dan Young as coach of the team as Mr. Young retired from his position. Mr. Le Mieux guided Muskegon Catholic Central's harriers to a state championship in 1971. All but two of the team members were underclassmen, so the 1973-74 season will begin with a good number of veterans.

The final conference standings saw Muskegon Catholic capture first place. There was a two-way tie for second between the Sailors of Mona Shores and the Muskegon Big Reds. Traverse City's Trojans and the Grand Haven Bucs tied for fourth with an inexperienced Benton Harbor Tiger team finishing last.

grapplers end up best season ever

Trojan Wrestlers completed another winning season with a record of 14-4 in dual meets, and 3rd in the LMAC standings. It was a year of firsts, as Blair Bearinger, outstanding Trojan wrestler for the 72-73 season, won 33 individual matches and six other wrestlers won over 20 matches each, with a total team effort of over 300 individual wins of which 135 were by pins. Paul McQuade became the first Trojan LMAC champion, with the team winning its first tournament championship at Benzie Central. First wins were over Muskegon, Oscoda, Bay City Central and Saginaw Arthur Hill. They placed third in the first Traverse City Christmas Invitational Tournament.

Individual records of some of the J-V grapplers include Ben Laird, who had 15 wins and 1 loss in the 98 pound weight class; Ken Haughn, with 8 wins to 2 losses in J-V matches, and only 3 to 6 in Varsity competition. The only three losses for the J-V's were to Oscoda (24-22) in a disputed final match; to Manistee Catholic Varsity (32-23); and to Muskegon Catholic Central J-V's (40-5).

teams win conference; girls no. 1 in region

Both teams placed first of the First Annual Northwestern Michigan Ski Conference meet at Sugarloaf on February 28th. Cynthia Hazelton won both the slalom and giant slalom events for the girls with Mary Jo Thiel placing second in G.S. and third in slalom.

The boys team was led by All-Conference juniors Jim Fredrickson and Tom Babel; Fredrickson taking first in G.S. and Babel getting top spot in slalom with Pat Reay second. At the Regionals Toubro Collings demolished all his competition in slalom, winning by a four second margin. All-Conference skiers Jackie Core and Cynthia Hazelton led the Trojan girls team to an exceptional season. Core finished second in a strong slalom competition.

j-v-soph cagers show promise for varsity

The JV and Sophomore Basketball teams combined this season with several sophomores playing each week with the JVs. The team members looked very promising for the varsity in future years. Although the JVs didn't have a good season record, they took 4 and lost 16. The sophomores had a 4 win and 1 lost record. Special JV awards were given to Mike Buday, captain; Bob Broadhurst, most valuable player; Steve Nyland, best defense; Greg Bright, Scott Corsaut, most improved; Steve Drake, best rebounder; and Mike Reed, sportsmanship.

The sophomores' leading scorer was Barney Ewing and rebounder was Kevin Grueber. The theme of the season: "Grow as men and human beings as well as in basketball skills and winning basketball games."

student body enthusiastic . . . team still loses

The goal of the '72-'73 basketball team was not reached because of inconsistency of play in a few of the key ball games that the team had planned on winning. A goal of ten wins during the season had been set, but close losses to Cadillac, Alpena, Petoskey, Muskegon C.C. and Mona Shores kept them from achieving this goal. However the team did improve the season record from last year and they played inspiring basketball in all of the games. With juniors playing most of the time, next year's squad will have a backlog of valuable experience. All of the team members gave 100% this year, but three outstanding players, Dave Corsaut, Frank Kerrigan and Gary Raymond were 1-2-3- in about all categories of the game: defense, scoring and rebounding. Corsaut was elected to the All-Conference team in the L.M.A.C. and Raymond received honorable mention. Kerrigan was the gym-rat, always the last person out of the gym, — trying to improve on his shooting and defense. With the enthusiasm and experience that the juniors have had, next year's T.C. team will have more wins!

j.v.s complete 4th undefeated season again

The J.V.s completed their fourth undefeated season with six wins and zero losses. All the meets were won within a margin of 27 points. Three sophomore records were broken this year. They were the four-forty relay, (Sheffler, Weber, Ogden, Bright), with a new time of forty six seconds flat. The new record was set for shotput by Roger Stroh, who made a new put of forty four feet and one inch. The pole vault record was broken by Mike Mauk who pole-vaulted a record of twelve feet. Coaches Joe Niehardt, John Lober and Dan Young decided to have a meet for the freshmen, sophomores and juniors to see how next year's varsity team would look. The sophomores won the meet and the coaches decided next year's varsity team would be very promising.

varsity track team takes third LMAC

The Traverse City Trojan Track team took their third LMAC trophy in a row this year. This past season four records were broken for outstanding individual records and the team ended with a 7-0 record. Records were made by junior Jack Lane who broke the old high jump record of 5 feet 11 inches to the new record of six feet  $\frac{7}{8}$  inch. Senior Stan Robbins set a new 880 record for the high school and Thirbly Field with 2:00.9 erasing the old mark set in 1966 at 2:02. In the pole vault, Bob Parks set a new record of 13 feet 8 inches. In the 440 relay the combination of Gilmore, Stasinki, Knowles, and Park set a new record at 44.7 seconds. Another first was Jim McGlothlin in the long jump who took first in the LMAC Conference for three years in a row in that event. And a team having taken the LMAC three years in a row is in itself also a first. Overall many individual records were broken and a very fine team record was made for an excellent season.

basketball popular in school program

The intra-mural sports program, headed by Terry Ebright, has three main activities. In the fall there is touch football; during the winter, there is a basketball program, and in the spring, a volleyball season. Intra-mural sports are open to any students not out for a varsity sport at the time that one of these three sports is in progress. About 30 boys were out for each sport, and each had a chance to participate. The intra-mural program scheduled games two or three times each week during the period it was in progress.

tennis team racks up good season

The Trojan tennis team ended the season with a 1-3 record. The most valuable player for the season was junior Steve Preston and the most improved was senior Bud Solem. The only sophomore who made the Varsity was Dave Hollis, who ended the season with a 17-6 record.

Prospects for next year's Varsity look very good with two returning lettermen who had the best records of the team, and the JVs who completed a fine 6-0 record. Traverse City came in second place in the conference meet for the L.M.A.C. and also came in in second place in the regionals, a close four points behind Midland Dow.

better squad has active season

The Traverse City Trojan baseball team had high hopes of a great season with nine returning lettermen. But unusual injuries and bad luck held the Trojans to a 4 to 15 record. John Sivek, for instance, who was expected to bat the lead-off position and to start in right field, had an injury before the first game which put him out of play until mid-May. Tim Bradford, catcher, was sidelined mainly for a bad leg. Bob Quick, expected to be the number one hitter, developed a habit of hitting the ball directly to an opposing player. The pitchers just couldn't get it together in striking out the batters of the opposing teams. At bat the Trojans would get one or even a couple of runners on base and not be able to advance them for a run. During one double header, the Trojans left twenty base runners stranded!

royalty chosen by students

The Homecoming weekend, October 27, was marked by many students constructing floats for the class competition, which was won by the Seniors. The Sophomore float didn't appear at all as it fell apart on the way to Thirlby Field.

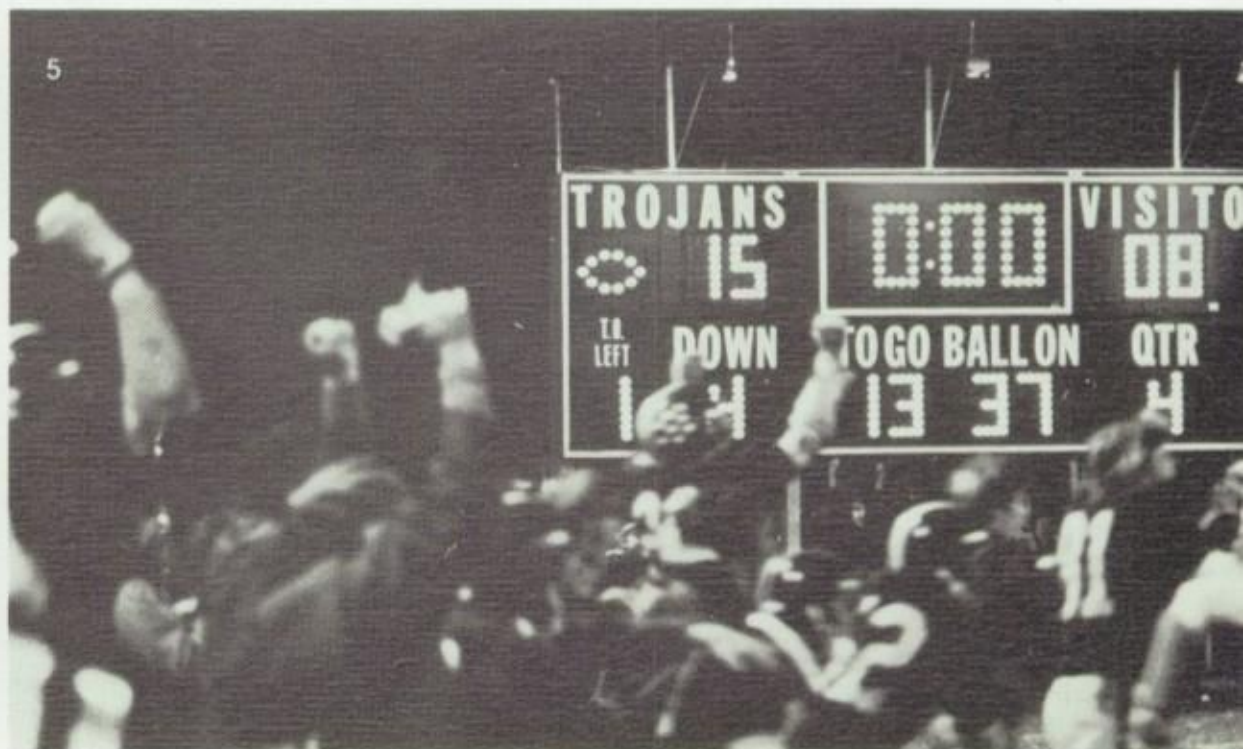

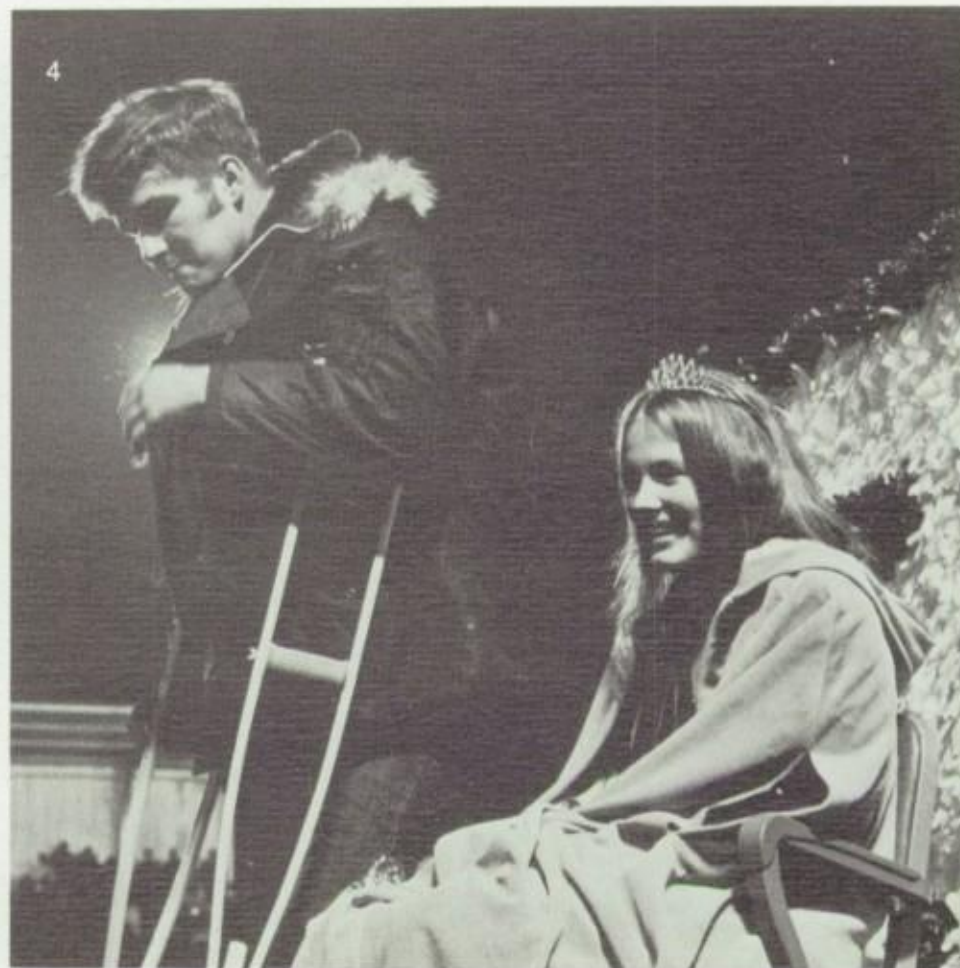

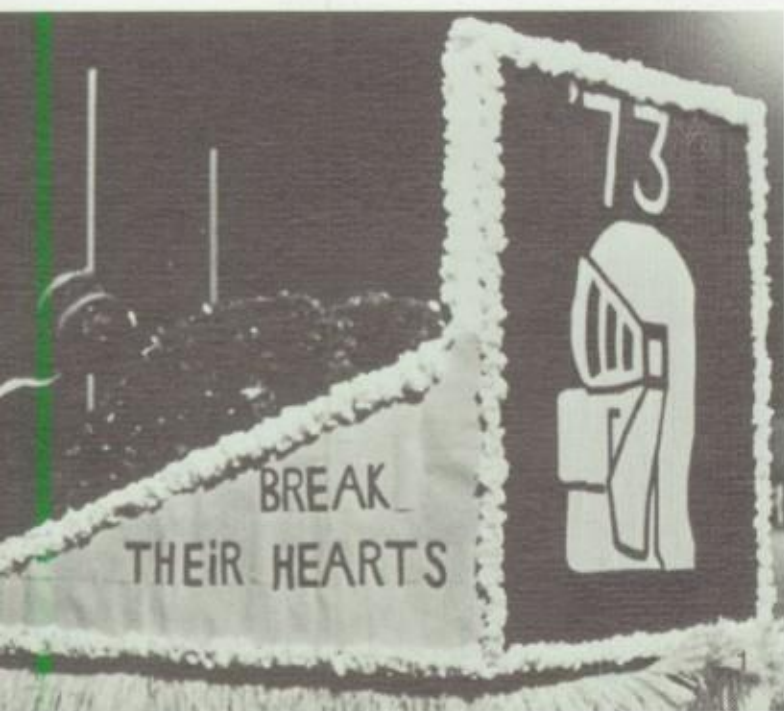

Members of the Courts for the Queen and King were chosen by the football team and Pep Club after a special committee selected a list of nominees.

The main consideration for nomination was how much the person had done to help his or her class or the school.

Finally, after the courts were chosen, the whole student body voted for the King and Queen, Mike McPhilamy and Ruth Brammer. Their names were announced, and they were honored at the end of the football game with the Muskegon Big Reds, of which we won.

cheerleaders demonstrate unity of mind and body

The Trojan cheerleaders of 1972-73 led the school with many new and versatile cheers. The Varsity squad attended Camp All-America at Hartland this past summer where they received high honors both as a group and for individual performances. Varsity members also worked with the Junior Varsity squad which was selected in mid-fall, preparing the J-V's for participation in the remaining football season and the upcoming basketball season. With many hours of practice behind them, they performed confidently at the many sports events as well as at frequent pep assemblies.

travels abroad spur language interests

Spain and France attracted 44 venturesome students and six adults in April during the high school spring break. In beautiful weather, the Spain group stopped at New York and Brussels en route to Madrid, but the France group flew non-stop to Paris. Another 14 students made a trip to Russia during the same period on a non-school sponsored trip. High spirits and ready smiles marked the Traverse City travelers in foreign lands. Various historic spots were visited, including the Opera House of Paris, and the exciting bull fights of Madrid. From ballet to bull fights to the Russian circus, interest was high.

"scope the once a day help"

Very much a part of the everyday gym class are scope leaders. Selected through try-outs held each year, girls with at least one year of high school phys. ed. are selected to help assist the teacher throughout the school year and to help assist the students during class with the many activities and skills that are taught to them during the course of the year. Scope leaders are generally made up of girls who wish to continue in the field of gymnastics and sports. These girls are a great help not only to the teacher but the students as well.

all girls out for g.a.a.

Many girls at the senior high found G.A.A. to be a club of all fun and games. This is an organized activity set up for girls who enjoy sports and wish to participate more. Held after school this activity attracted many girls. Camping, canoeing, and soccer, were all a part of this program. Mrs. Johns was the faculty adviser for the group, assisted by the club officers.

peppy people promote pep club

This year's Pep Club under the direction of president Ruth Brammer and faculty advisor Mr. John Sonneman, provided services not only to the students and athletes but to the community as well. In addition to selling its usual booster ribbons, programs and concessions, members helped with the Easter Seals campaign. The club was also in charge of the arrangement of all pep assemblies, as well as giving assistance in Homecoming and Pep-A-Rama events.

From the funds raised by their money making projects, members had opportunities to go on bus trips to view Trojan athletic events downstate. Included in this year's trips were journeys to Muskegon, Muskegon Catholic and Mona Shores.

Every week members from each class painted banners in support of the upcoming athletic events for the various wing displays. Funds were also supplied to repaint the concession booths at Thirlby Field. The wide range of events sponsored by the club, interested nearly 400 girls, making it the largest student organization on campus.

varsity club, involved in action

After a slow start Varsity Club met and elected club officer, Bob Quick as president, Paul McQuade as vice president and Pete Norcross as secretary-treasurer. Varsity Club's first major project came about when they completely took over the selling of advertising to local businesses and promoting programs for the class C and D districts, and the Class D basketball regionals, which were played in our high school gym. The annual faculty-varsity club basketball game was played. The faculty got revenge for their loss to varsity club the year before by defeating the letter winners from trojan-land soundly. Later in the year many of the members went to hear Uriah Heep and Billie Preston in concert at Cobo Hall on April 27th.

key club opens door to area service

Key Club is an international organization of high school boys. There are clubs through-out the United States, Canada, and the British Isles. The local club is sponsored by The Kiwanis Club of Traverse City. Some of their projects include decorating and delivering Christmas trees to area shut-ins and senior citizens, hosting a valentines party and playing basketball with patients at the State Hospital, and also taking handicapped children swimming at a local pool. Members of the club each year have the chance to attend two conventions, a Michigan District Convention, and an International Convention. This year their major fund raising project was to be operating WCCW FM radio station on February 26th and 27th for three hours each night. The Key Club is not a fun club, but rather a service club which does quite a lot for our community.

21ST CONVENTION BIG SUCCESS!

On the weekend of April 14th, the 21st annual Key Club Convention was held at the Park Place Motor Inn in Traverse City. The Convention was a BIG success.

On Friday at the opening session, an estimated 200 persons attended. The guest speaker at the session was Pat Plaginskis of the Crisis Intervention Center, a center devoted to the assistance in helping youths with problems ranging from drugs to parents. Saturday morning's Business Session opened with a speech given by Congressman Gerald Ford. Later on that morning, educational meetings and seminars took place. The seminars were based on the International Theme: "Enrich Man's Existence" and three major emphasis programs. The Minority Group Relations seminar was conducted by three representatives of a northern Michigan "Indian Relations Committee", in which great enthusiasm was shown.

The Rotary seminar was conducted by Charles Casew of the U of M Sea Grant Project.

The Drug seminar proved to be very successful, with the largest attendance of all. Officer Butler of the Traverse City Police Department conducted this seminar.

In the evening, the Awards Banquet was held. Michael Dively, a state Representative, was the main speaker and gave an excellent speech on the responsibility of young people of today. A surprise visit by Senator Robert Griffin capped the evening.

The House of Delegates was held that same evening in which the delegates voted on new officers and the re-dissolving proposal.

FERRDALE HOST INSTALLATION

What had originally been planned as a small installation party, turned out to be a large installation and meeting of many Key Clubs.

Held at Ferrdale High School on Wednesday, April 26, the Ferrdale Key Club hosted five clubs for the party. Among the clubs in attendance were Ferrdale, Baginaw Douglas MacArthur, Wyandotte Roosevelt, Detroit Redford, Royal Oak, Kintball, Baginaw Eisenhower. Among the dignitaries present were Gov. Harry Lam, Sen. Mark Meridian, Treasurer Mike Coughran, and Wolverine Editor Skip Miller. These four gentlemen comprise the entire District Executive Board. Also in attendance were Lt. Gov. Len Hatlap, Lt. Gov. Mike Meridian, Kiwanis Lt. Gov. Glen Church, many Kiwanians and Family Advisors. With the main theme of the program being centered around the officers elect, Key Club Int. Vice-Pres. Carl Rosenman delivered an address that focused on their responsibilities and duties.

Immediate past District Governor Al Thompson, who appeared more relaxed and relieved than he has seemed since before he held office, offered his commends and advice to the Key Clubbers. The highlight of the evening was the installation of officers by District Gov. Harry Lam. Governor Harry did a fine job of spelling out obligations and duties of each officer.

After the meeting was adjourned, refreshments were served, and ladies were provided by Past Division Chairman Lenore "Tidie Lennie" Palmstedt.

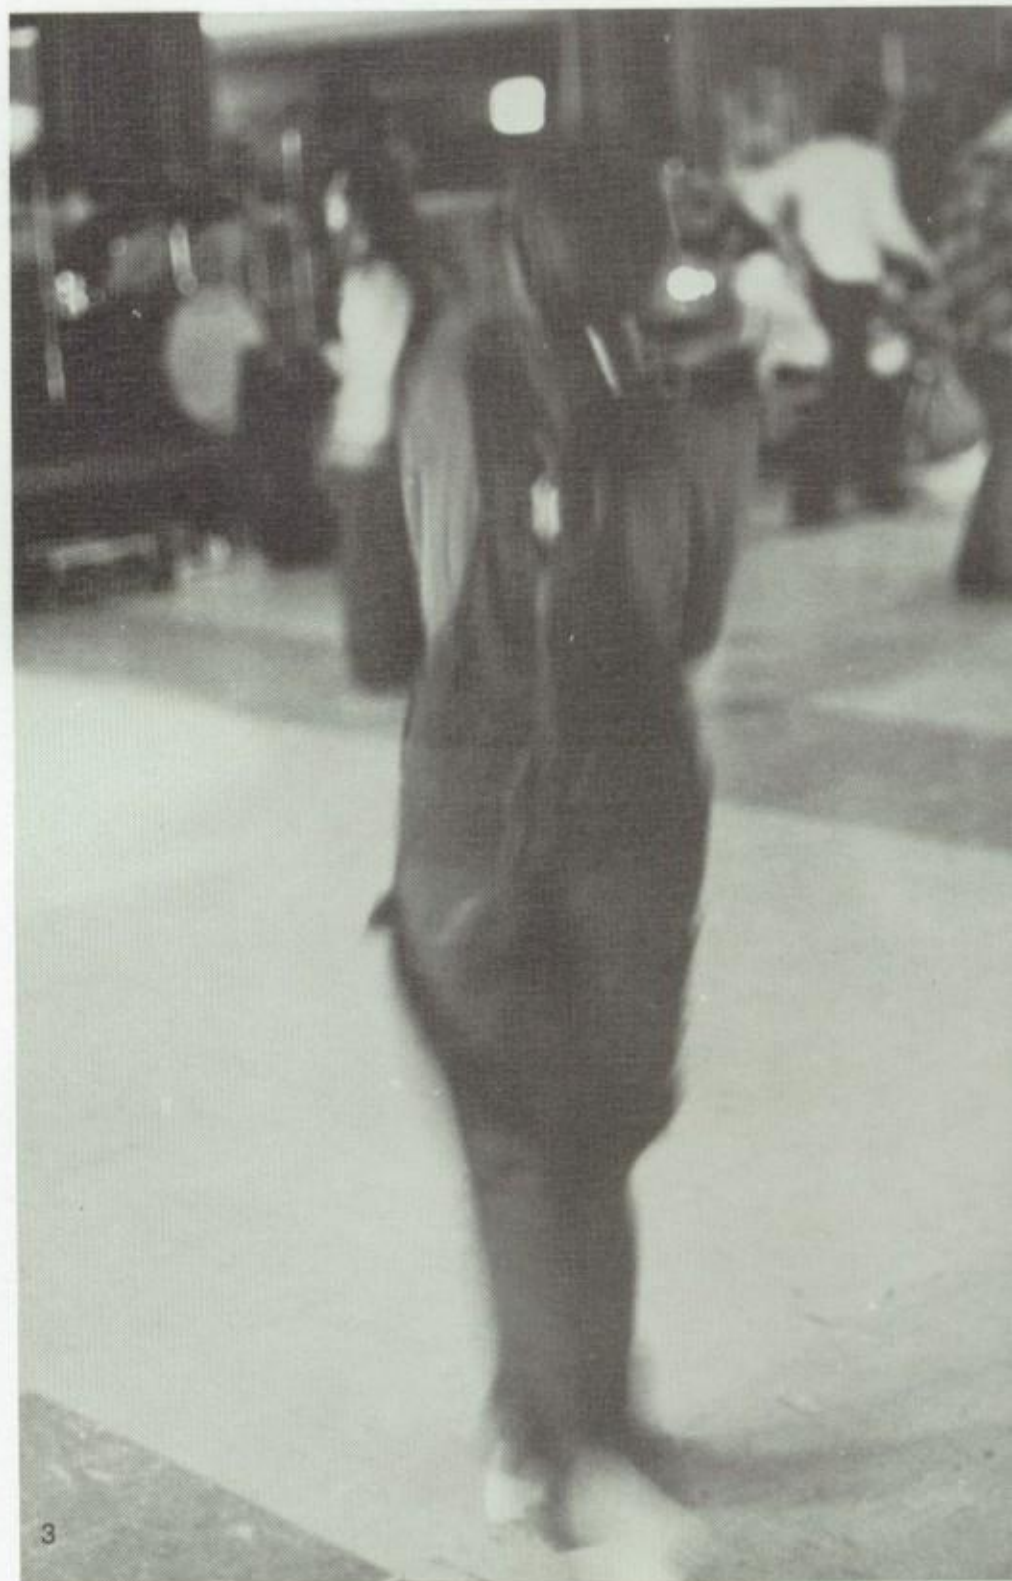

The Ferrdale Club thanks all who were in attendance.

tri-hi-y comes thru with 'sadie'

Tri-Hi-Y, a club for girls, has two major projects each year. The first is putting on the Sadie Hawkins Dance and the second is the Youth Legislature in Lansing. The club has six officers headed by Ann Okerstrom, president, Ann McCort, vice-president, Elizabeth Hardy, secretary, Sharon McGill, treasurer, Ruth Brammer, chaplain, and the adviser, Mrs. Brenda Wittig. Tri-Hi-Y meets weekly to organize projects of special interest. One of the many projects undertaken was the Sadie Hawkins Dance, held November 18. It was well attended with Nash supplying the entertainment. During the year Tri-Hi-Y had special guests such as Terry Puffer, a hair stylist, and Mrs. Joan Laird, a yoga specialist.

student council reaches out

This year, the Student Council shifted its emphasis from raising money to promoting activities that would help to relate the concerns of the school to those of the community. The Student Council was under the direction of Mark Kearns, governor; Gary Bruland, lieutenant governor; Mike McManus, faculty advisor; and Arthur Schbert, administration representative. The Council sponsored three all-school assemblies, and, in addition promoted voter registration for those who had reached the age of majority.

class activities sponsored by councils

The Class Councils, composed of officers and committee chairmen of each class, have had varying activities this year. The Sophomores' main project was the annual magazine sale, which was extra successful this year in terms of sales volume. Under the leadership of the Junior Council, the Junior class competed valiantly in the Pep-A-Rama events, winning first prize for their snow sculpture, and finally tying for second place with the Sophomores in the over all competition. No official Junior Prom was given this year, nor was there a Senior Prom. The Senior Class Council planned the Homecoming weekend and the Pep-A-Rama week in January. They innovated a picnic at Bryant Park in June during graduation week, which was well attended.

S.I.U. club welcomes foreign students here

Students for International Understanding had an active year, learning something of the cultures and countries of the foreign students here for the school year, and hearing the stories of our returnees from abroad. The fifth successful Winter Weekend was held in January at which about 75 foreign exchange students in northern Michigan were guests. Lively social exchanges developed from all this, and international good will abounded. Mr. Fred Curow, faculty advisor, lent his enthusiasm to the club and its activities.

new activity competes well

Forensics, in its second season here, deals with different types of public speaking. It is unique in that it offers students an opportunity to cultivate individual talent. All competition is on an individual basis rather than a team basis, as is the case in many other activities. Those who placed in competition include: Jim Nantz, Cathy Green and Lynn Moon in Serious Interpretation; Robert Parker and David Bell in Radio Broadcasting; Jan Kenney, Pam Peterson and Marianne Dunaitis, in Multiple Readings.

pep-a-rama highlights spark student spirit in '73

Competition was the key word in the '73 Pep-a-rama week as all classes struggled for victory. As in years past, the tug of wars drew big crowds as the class muscles showed that a little Trojan Spirit goes a long way. The Juniors won an unusual victory in the snow sculpture competition; the sophomores won a hard earned second place in the skit competition. The seniors had an overwhelming victory with their presentation of the prehistoric cartoon strip "B.C.". Representative Mr. and Miss Spirit were selected by the individual classes and voted upon by the combined student body. The Spirits for 1973 were Becky Dery and Jon Pelizarri. Judging on the best spirit costume and a marshmallow eating contest, were also included.

small clubs for special interests

The Thespian troupe #2203 was actively led by Rhonda Tharp, president, and was assisted by Brent School, vice president. The initiation picnic was held June 3rd at Yuba Park, where new members were initiated, and deserving members received their awards. Paul Williams and Pamela Peterson received the awards for Best Actor and Actress. Mike Lemcool was recognized as Best Thespian, and Theresa Hoxie received the Best Sophomore award. Jean Lackie was student director. Six performances were presented to students in the 1st through the 5th grades from area schools during the week of January 13th. The play was also presented on Friday, January 19th at 8:00 P.M. in the TCHS auditorium. Leland school students had the opportunity to see the play Saturday, January 27th. The play included several musical numbers, brilliant costumes, and colorful scenery which featured a magical cave.

comedy praised

"The Servant of Two Masters", written in the style of Commedia dell'Arte, by Carlo Goldoni in the 1750's was given November 17 and 18 to enthusiastic audiences. # school goes all-out in nhs talent show

The major project of the National Honor Society this year was the all-school Talent Show, presented in March. A new feature of the show this year was music provided by a pit band, directed by Joe Laird. The show was presented at two student matinees and for one standing-room-only evening performance, which netted over $900 for the scholarship fund.

Along with the Talent Show proceeds, the NHS earned money by selling stationery, picking up Christmas trees, and selling baked goods. The results of these activities made possible three scholarships to three outstanding seniors of $350 each, in June.

More than 40 members of NHS not only earned money, but helped school projects with their services. In the fall they sponsored the special program at which the school's Scholastic Key Awards were presented. During the winter they stapled 2500 curriculum bulletins for next year's students. Another rewarding activity for those involved was participation in a tutoring program for elementary school students in a nearby school. Of course, many members were also active in clubs and sports.

"So much productive activity really puts meaning into the club's ideals of 'service, character and leadership'," commented Mrs. Betty Parker, chapter advisor.

symphony orchestra has full season

The TCHS Orchestra had a very busy year. Early in the fall educational concerts were performed at the grade schools. An afternoon Musical Matinee completed the pre-Christmas events. Christmas Concerts were given performances of the Vivaldi "Gloria".

The full orchestra played Leonard Bernstein's "Overture to Candide" at the All-City Music Festival and rated a high number of 1st division winners in the Solo and Ensemble Festival. Three violinists, Marcia Klay, Tina Klay and Lisa Kuuttila won the concert appearances with the Northwestern Michigan Symphony. The orchestra was awarded straight No. 1 ratings in the District Band and Orchestra Festival.

Spring orchestra events included the "Spring Fling" concert with the TCHS Concert Band and participation in the State Band and Orchestra Festival at Saginaw, earning a No. II rating. About forty members of the orchestra comprised the pit orchestra for the musical "Oliver". The final formal concert of the year was the annual "All Orchestra" concert with both junior and senior high groups. The last performance was the appearance at Honor's Convocation.

music on the go

Music was really on the go this year. The Trojan Marching Band traveled to U of M; the Choir, to East Lansing; and the Symphony Band, to Milwaukee, Wisconsin. All of these trips were arranged by Director of Music, Thad Hegerberg. Music Appreciation and Theory, taught by David Milross, are also part of the Music Department. These classes were designed for students who want to increase their knowledge in the field of music.

The Choralaires performed over twenty concerts this year, in the area, entertaining various clubs and church groups. They also attended a state Madrigal Festival in the fall, where, in addition to musical activities, they enjoyed the classic eating style of King George!

"band take the field" and indeed they did

"... in all respects, the greatest and finest postgame show by a high school band that I have seen in 24 years of Band Days at the University of Michigan." This was the expert opinion of Dr. William D. Revelli, retired conductor of the U of M bands, after watching the Trojan Marching Band perform at Michigan Stadium in Ann Arbor on September 30, 1972. Their show entitled "Great American Traditions" was received with much enthusiasm by the Michigan Marching Band, Traverse City fans, and various other spectators. This trip was the main event of the season but it didn't end here. The 165 band members worked many long hours to prepare shows for a guest performance at CMU and a half time show at the Owosso vs. Trojan football game. The band also provided entertainment and diversity to all of the home games by preparing new and exciting shows each week. Most of the arrangements and all of the intricate routines were written by the director and coordinator of music, Mr. Thad Hegerberg. The season was tremendous and will be remembered for many years. At the close of marching band, Band-O-Rama was held in the gymnasium where Don Groszek received best marcher award.

4. Gabi Perez-Banuet added much spirit and showiness to the squad of pom pom girls during Band-O-Rama.

stage band and trojan brass for added music

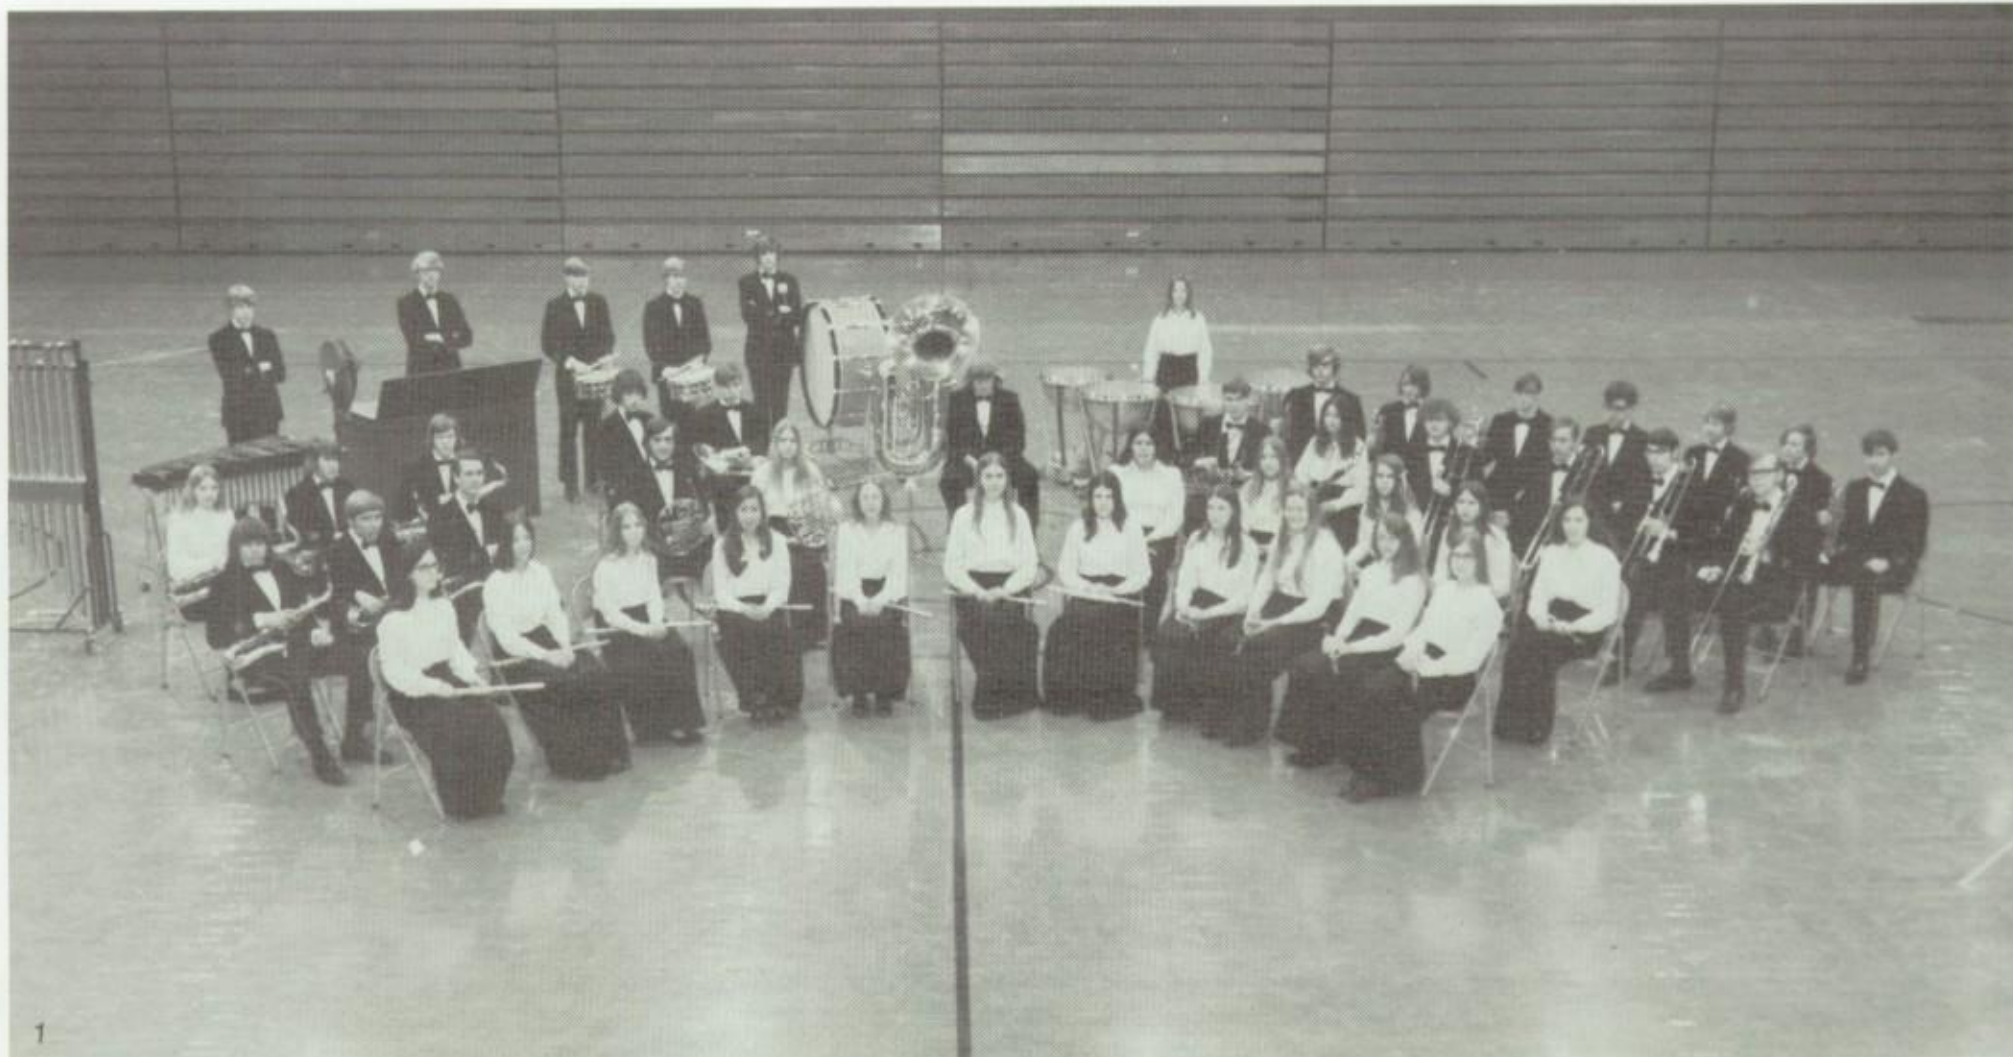

Trojan Brass was an informal conglomeration of kids that performed for the home basketball games and school pep assemblies, while playing popular tunes from marching band.

Stage Band, another extra-curricular activity, is on the other end of the spectrum when they introduce to the public the form of music called jazz. This organization traveled to Henry Ford College in Dearborn, and while competing with Detroit area schools they received an excellent rating. Other trips also included a performance at the Leelanau schools, Boyne City High School and various local concerts.

concert & symphony bands explore music spectrum

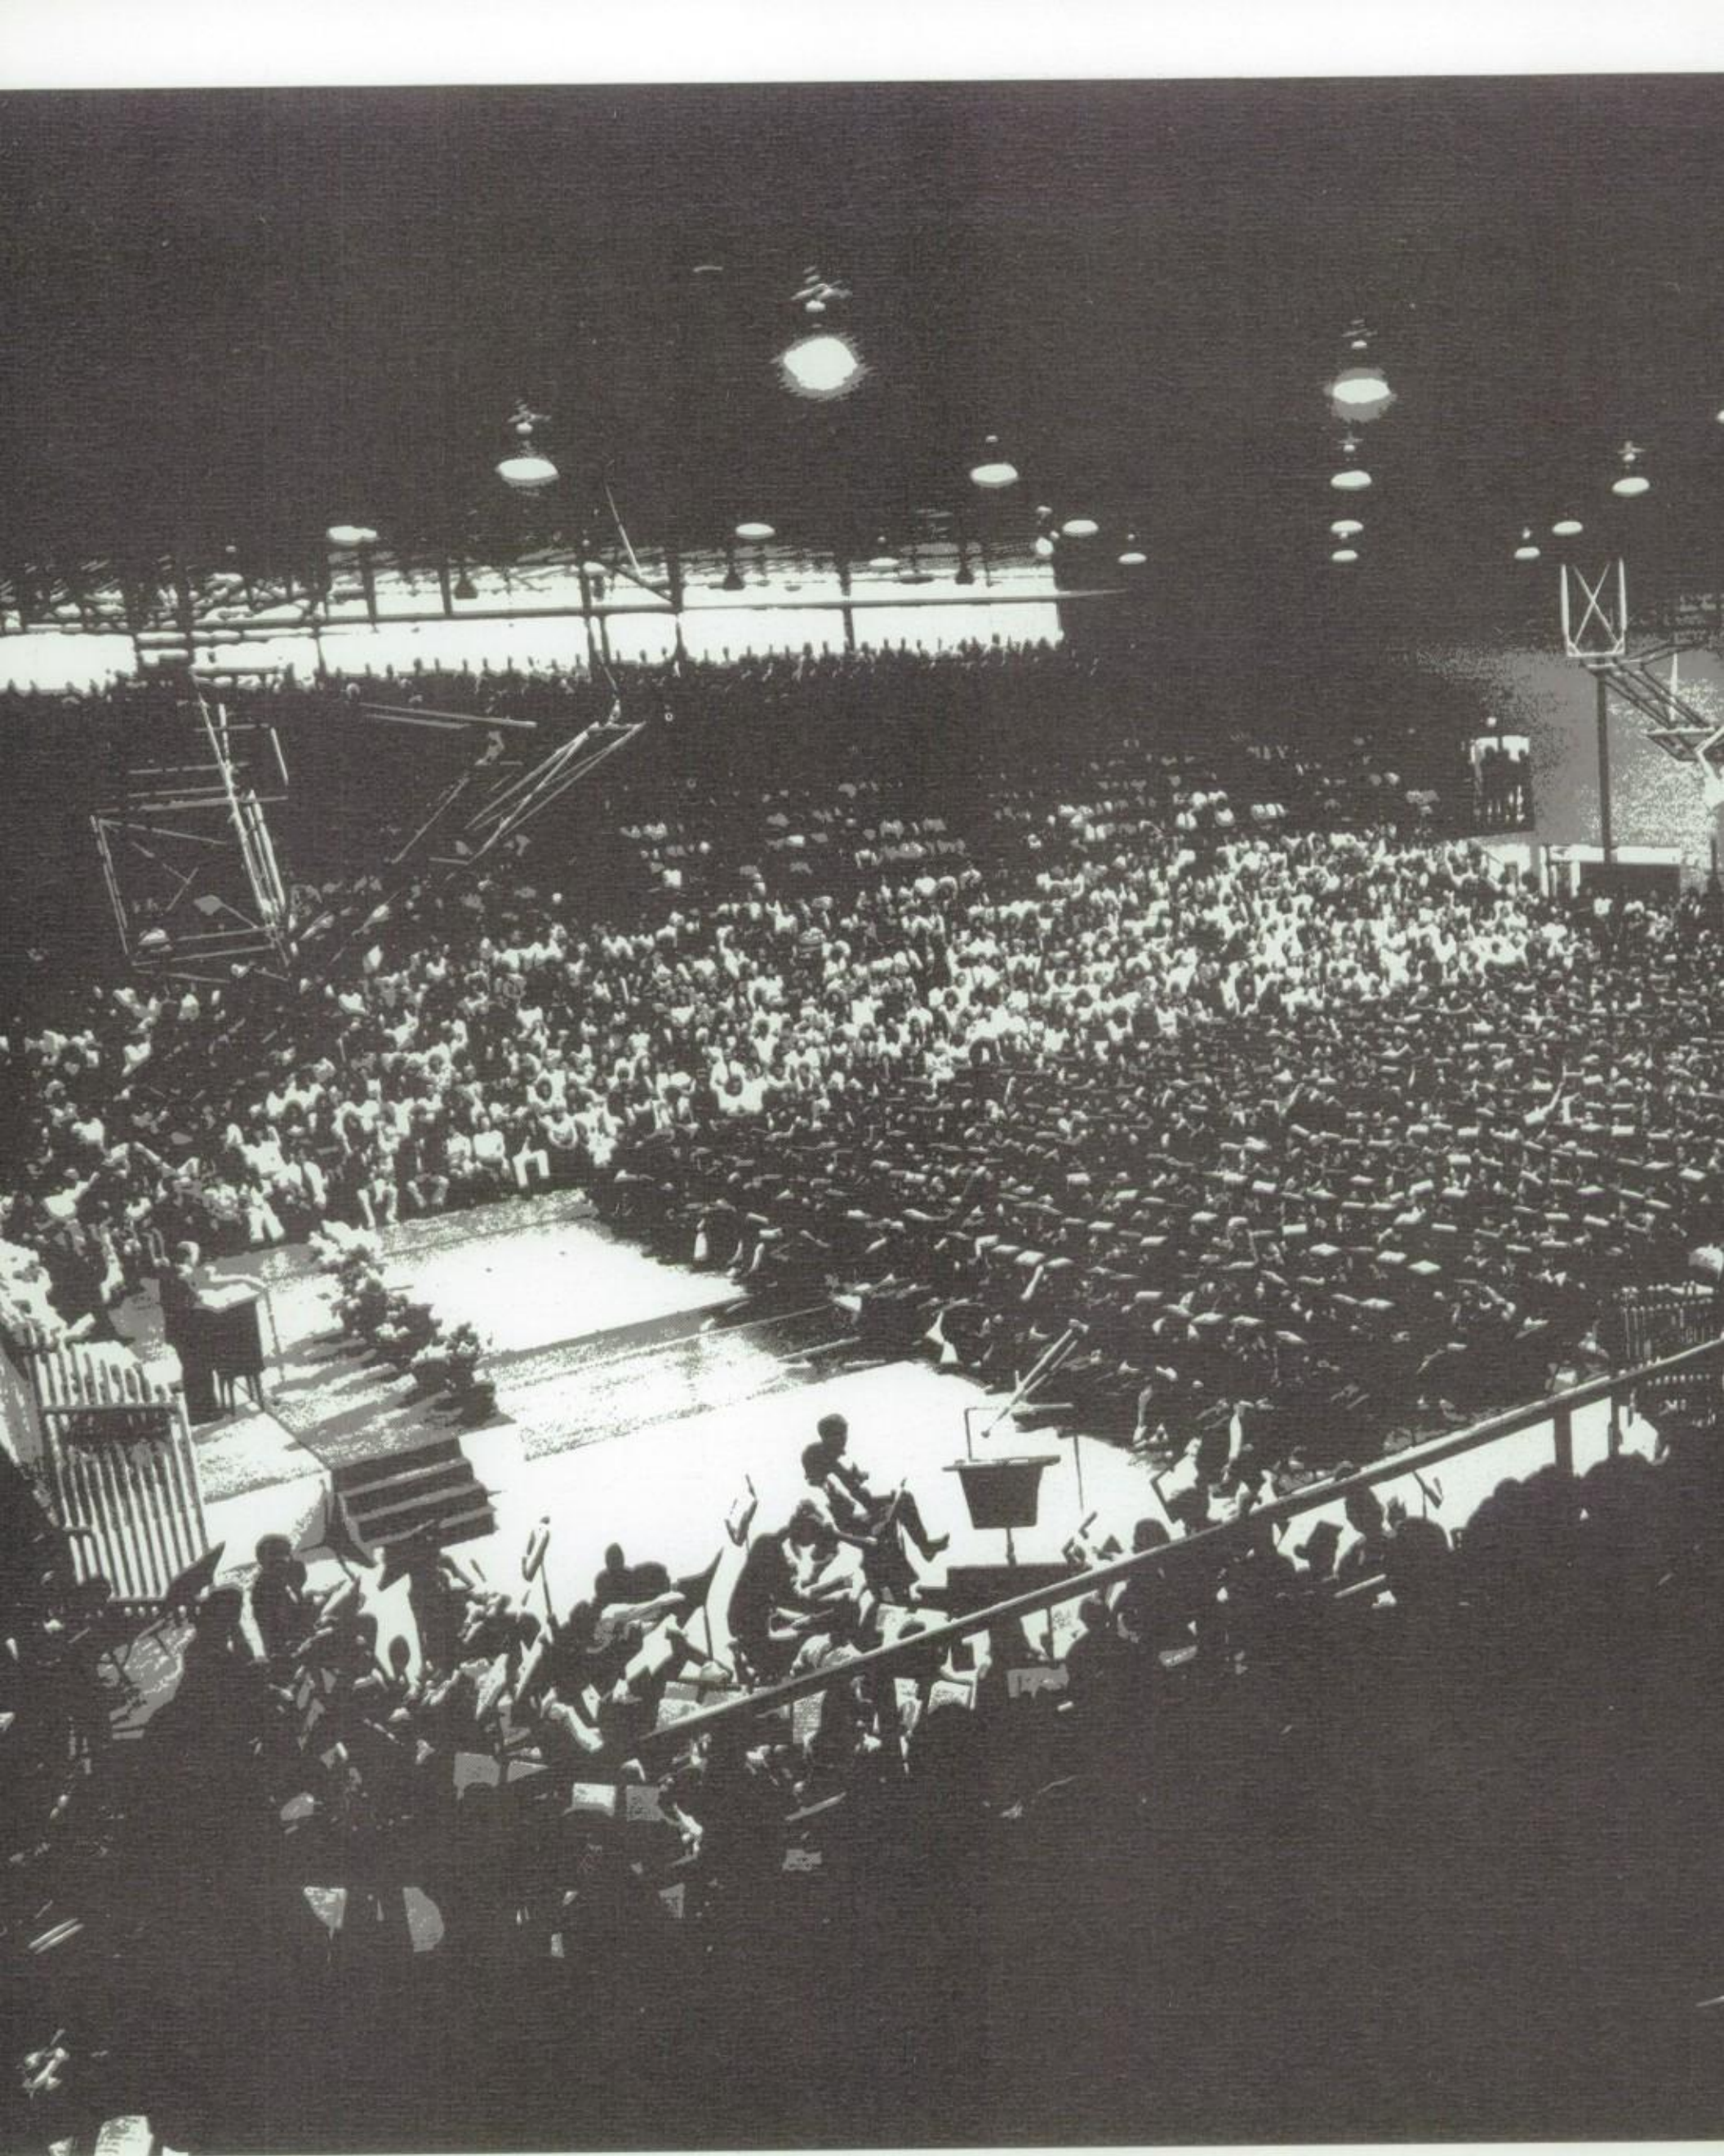

The T.C.H.S. Concert Band, under the direction of Mr. Greg Talford, performed often throughout the season. Their performances included: an appearance at the annual Band-O-Rama, a mid-winter concert, a concert with the High School orchestra, a spring concert, and the Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association District Festival, in which they received a II, or Excellent rating. All in all, the hard working high school musicians had a most productive and rewarding year.

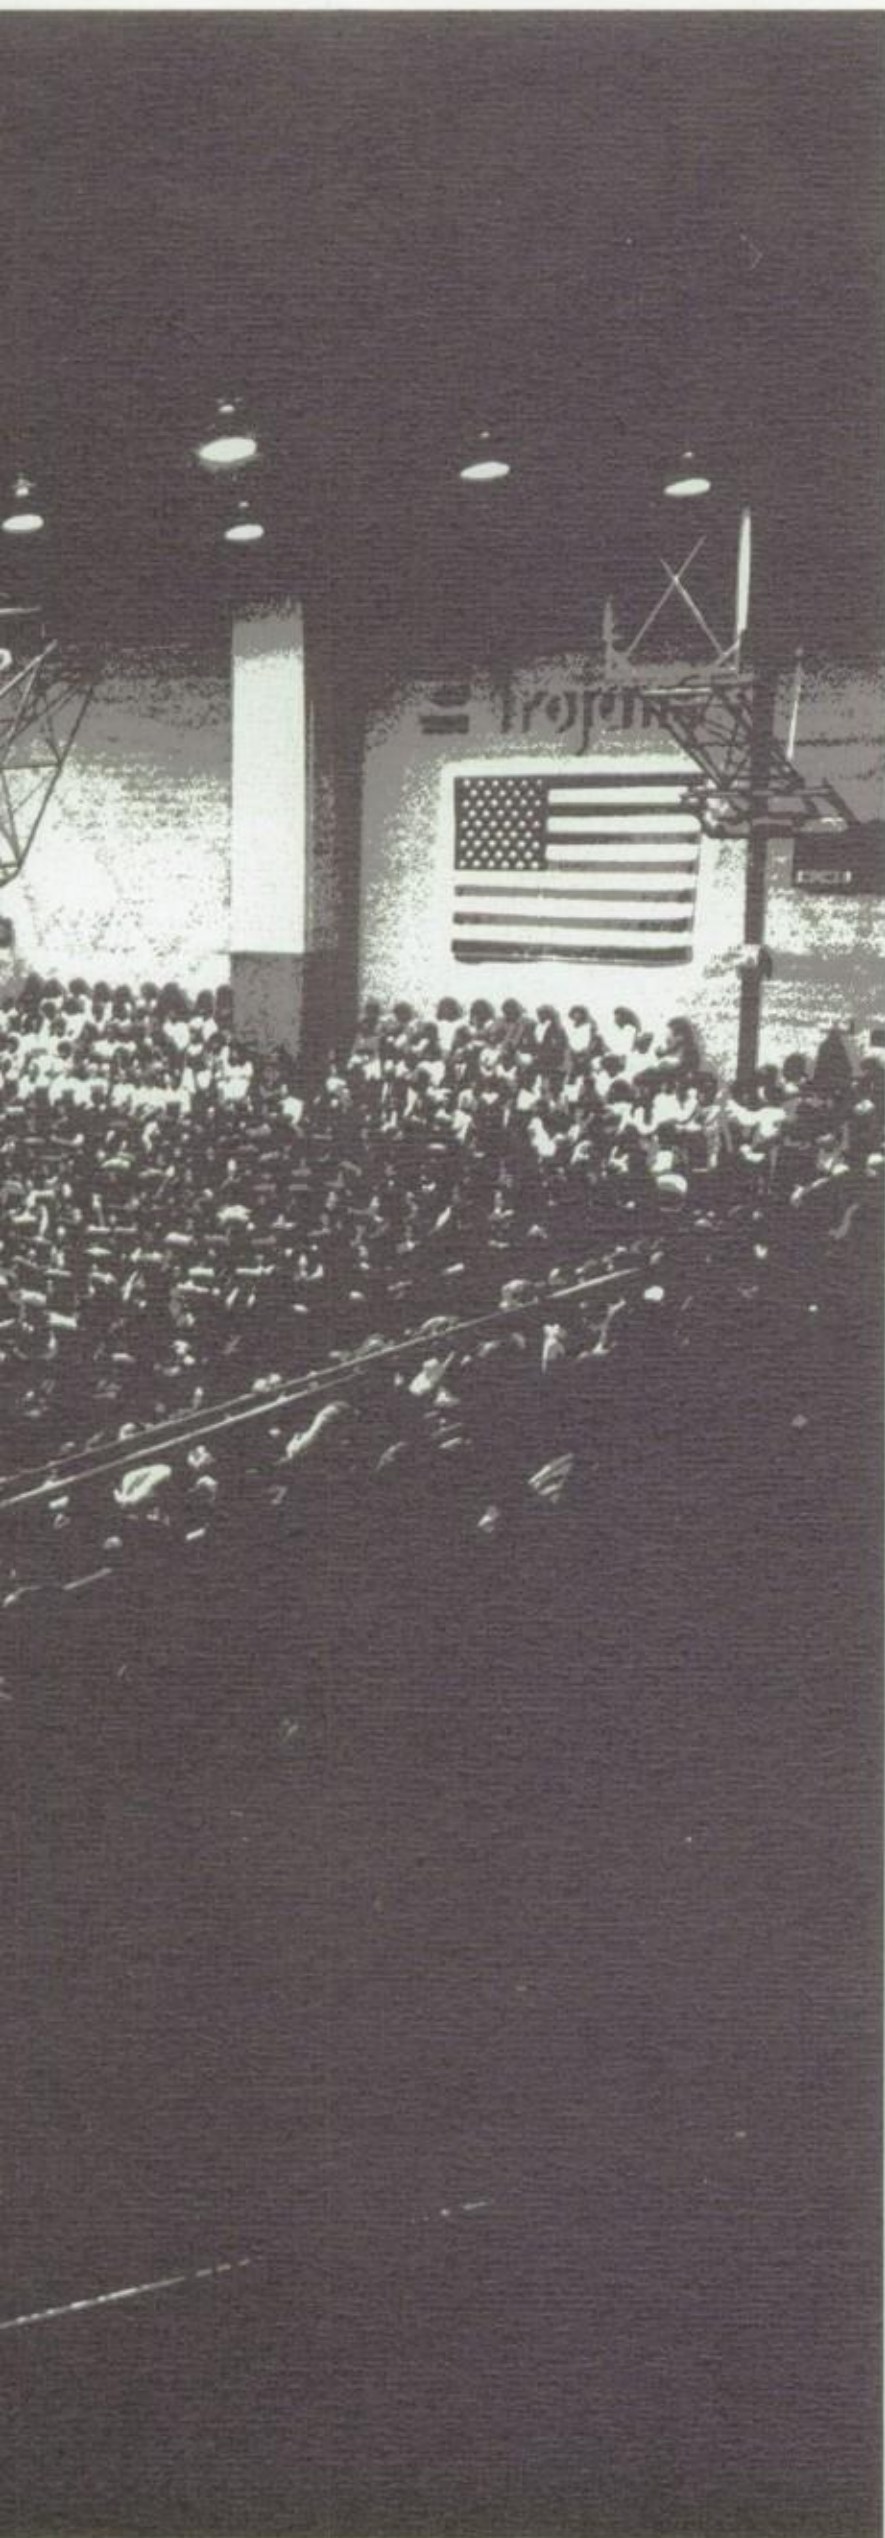

For the Symphony Band, 1972-73 was its best year yet. This group of persevering musicians, and their conductor, Mr. Thad Hegerberg, worked hard together, practiced hard together, and played hard together, which made them one of the best performing organizations in the state. The Symphony Band's appearances included: Band-O-Rama, a winter concert, a special Christmas concert, the All-City Music Festival, a special Senior concert, two M.S.B.O.A. Festivals (both with a I or Superior rating), and a spring tour of Wisconsin. The Symphony Band members put a lot of blood, sweat, and tears into their music, but for a reward, they produced an extremely exciting sound, and they enjoyed a camaraderie unequalled in any other school organization.

rise in student enrollment noted this year

It was another year of growth in the Traverse City public schools, with enrollment increasing by 3 per cent for a total of 9,614 students, or 285 more than the previous school year, according to figures from the superintendents office. The continued growth was in marked contrast to declines in school enrollment elsewhere in the state, thus indicating that many new families have moved into the Traverse City district. School officials started to work on plans for future building needs.

change in secretaries in junior wing takes place in mid-semester

The junior wing had two secretaries this year. Mrs. Cleo Bright was secretary until partway through the second semester. As a result of transfers within the school system, Mrs. Bright went to work for the administrative offices on Boardman street, and the junior wing acquired a new secretary, Mrs. Arlene Tremain. Mrs. Tremain is a graduate of Traverse City High School and worked at the St. Francis annex before coming here.

class of '75 welcomes new counselor

This year there was a new addition to our counseling staff. Mr. Jerry Glenn became the new sophomore boys guidance counselor and building supervisor for "C" building. He has a Bachelor of Music degree from Western Michigan University and a Master's degree from the University of Michigan. Before coming to senior high, Mr. Glenn worked for five summers at the National Music Camp.

During second semester another new face was seen on campus. Mrs. Donna Dodd, who will be the junior girls' guidance counselor next year, has spent time both at the junior high and senior high, familiarizing herself with the personnel and procedures at the various grade levels. Mrs. Dodd has a Bachelor of Arts in English from Michigan State University and a Master of Science in counseling and guidance from the University of Wisconsin. She has been a counselor for ten years. Two of these years were spent in Medinah, Illinois and the other eight years in the Department of Defense overseas schools in Germany where she was confronted with all aspects of counseling. This counseling was concerned with American children who had fathers stationed in Germany.

The counseling staff headed by Mrs. Ellabeth Smethells has continued to work with career counseling and other areas.

a-la-carte: two years of success

For the second year in a row TCHS students have been able to take advantage of the a-la-carte lunch program in place of the usual type A lunches. The menus were planned by our cooks and the food was purchased by Mrs. Betty Kopus, head of the school lunch programs for all Traverse City Area Public Schools.

our custodians: long time environmentalists

Pushing brooms were not the only jobs of our custodians. For instance they regularly changed lights, kept the campus lawns beautiful in the summer, the walks clear in the winter, and replaced numerous broken doors and windows (caused by overly enthusiastic students). Also the custodians were involved with many after-school uses of the buildings, both for the school and the community. They are the real environmentalists, keeping the school free from the pollution of dust, dirt, and litter.

cafeteria used for far more than lunch—

What goes on in the cafeteria? Eating, of course. Also, in the lounge, there was ping-pong and ping-pong watching! In addition, there was music from the juke box, socializing, snacking, and—yes—sometimes studying. Finally, there was the clean up man at day's end! Many evenings it was used for school or community meetings of various kinds. Altogether it was a busy, useful place for a large number of people.

math department continues expansion

The mathematics department continued to expand this year, by offering two new math courses, including Probability and Statistics and Selected Topics in Mathematics. Probability and Statistics dealt with many of the concepts of probability and statistics as well as preparing students for courses where a strong statistical background would be required. Selected topics is an honors level course which includes such things as topology, graph theory, flow charts, and logic.

Introduced last year, Fortran—a course dealing with the basic concepts of computer programming, was met with much enthusiasm as it grew from one class to four classes of 30 or more students.

We may be gaining new mathematics courses but we are losing a math teacher. Mr. John Bearss who has taught high school mathematics here for about 6 years will not be at TCHS next year. Instead he will be teaching high school mathematics in Germany as a member of American Dependence Schools. To become a member Mr. Bearss applied and was accepted. He then was given an assignment which for next year is in Germany.

i.m.c. offers more services

The Instructional Media Center this year offered multiple services. Four pieces of new equipment, the Xerox and Ektographic machines, the student copier, and Dry-mount press. The Xerox machine made possible reproductions for class use. For student use, the copier was purchased. This saved many a student an unnecessary writer's cramp. The Ektographic machine is a camera which would take pictures of pictures in books. The Dry-mount press laminates pictures on clear plastic and cardboard. The I.M.C. Center expanded in paperback books this year.

skills and talents expand in comm. arts

In its second year of operation, the Communication Arts' Apex program has continued to be well received with students selecting a wide variety of courses. A few new courses were added this year, so the students had many options at every phase level, from phase 1, (the easiest), to phase 5, (the most difficult or advanced). For instance, Mythology had an advanced section this year, Greek Literature. A class in Advanced Studies was included in the schedule for the first time. Several classes have developed co-curricular activities: Man and His World now has an Ecology Club; Art of the Motion Picture sponsors a film club which presents a film series each semester; debate teams have grown out of the debate classes, and forensic competitors from the speech classes. The Thespian chapter, which sponsors dramatic productions, has been strengthened by classes in Theater Arts and Stagecraft. Station WRLB is manned by people from the radio classes; and an annual trip to Stratford, Ontario is filled with enthusiastic students from classes in Shakespeare and other lit classes. The school publications, CHALLENGER, the BLACK AND GOLD and the PINES are actually produced by classes in these areas.

debaters argue school financing

The 1972-1973 debate season at TCHS was one of great success and last minute defeat. The varsity team for the second straight year, took first place in the Tip of the Mitt League, followed by a first-place win in the newly rebuilt North Central League. These victories qualified them to enter districts, where the team failed to qualify for regionals, but even so finished in second place in the districts tournament. The JV team took first in a novice tournament in Mt. Pleasant where Lynn Moon was awarded the highest rating.

reading improvement may take place here

Reading as a skill was encouraged in several classes of Reading Techniques, a class designed to improve the reading efficiency of students for later recreational or college use. Other reading classes stressed individual reading problems and remedial work. Mr. Robert Campbell, new this year, feels that with proper instruction, anybody can read anything! Mrs. Roberta Mason, too, believes in better reading skills as a key to greater satisfaction. Mrs. Joanne Panter, director of the T.C. public schools reading program, continues to work towards more awareness of reading as an essential element in school success.

boys find strength in gym classes

The boys' physical education program offered a variety of sports in which the student learns and develops the skills, muscles and agility that go into the sport. These sports include football, archery, volleyball, handball, basketball, track, golf, tennis, weight lifting, soccer, softball, wrestling and fitness tests. This intramural program instructs the students, gives them experience and a chance to compete with their classmates on a somewhat equal basis.

girls roll away the rolls

The girls' physical education class has become one of the more popular classes in school recently. This year Advanced Gym Class was introduced for those girls who wish to go on in the gymnastic field. Activities included in these classes this year were modern dance, basketball, volleyball, and tennis. An outgrowth of gym classes is Scope which is composed of enthusiastic girls who act as assistants to Mrs. Johns and Mrs. Mixer throughout the year. These girls are selected from the many that may apply after completing one year of high school physical education.

language study aided by real experiences

Students are taught French, Spanish and Latin with both audio and visual exercises. Students find that it takes a great amount of effort to learn a foreign language, not only on their part, but on the part of the teachers. Students who have taken a foreign language have had the opportunity of using it in travel abroad. This year there were overseas trips offered to both France and Spain. New cultures were experienced by student travelers in both countries. Hearing a foreign language in use was found to be quite inspiring to further study. More student interest in foreign countries aids activity in language study; thus class study includes many culturally related projects.

industrial arts curriculum adds interests

Industrial Arts, part of the Vocational Training department, is chairmanned by Mr. Norman Trahair, and offers new programs, Graphic Arts and Small Engines this year, as well as Auto Shop, drafting and Wood Shop.

Graphic Arts is a printing class that makes photo-ready copy for the BLACK AND GOLD for the printers. Small Engines teaches the principles of motorcycles, snow machines, lawn mowers, boats and other small motors. The purpose of these courses is to give students opportunities to try different fields of work, for possible continuation later. Mr. Wilbur McMath, Vocational director, and Mr. Roger Werly help students find jobs for summer, for the co-op program, and for after school. They supervise students and grade them on their cooperation and willingness.

outdoor lab teaches independent skills

The students at the Outdoor Lab have constructed a shelter for their sawmill, built dormitories, are starting a field kitchen and have learned landscaping. They also enjoy skeet shooting, bowling and other sports at the 212 acre site. The Laboratory, now in its seventh year, is also a nature center in which area grade school children enjoy picnics and camping, hosted by the students in the program, which is designed for bored kids who prefer to learn by doing, rather than by traditional methods.

guests on campus stir student interest

Invitations to guest speakers are often the outgrowth of classroom units of study, so students find source material available from these guests. Thus, State Representative Mike Dively and candidate Ben Miltner made a pre-election appearance here, debating campaign issues. Judge Mary Blackburn, a candidate at that time for the Michigan Supreme Court also was an invited guest. John Anderson, W.C.C.W. has often appeared for classes in Communication Arts. The high school library is the scene of a Government Day meeting with members of the City Commission.

new program is well liked

A new Social Studies program was introduced in the fall of '72 to meet the varied interests of the student by utilizing the latest instructional material and techniques and to provide the knowledge and skills necessary to meet current and future needs.

The curriculum was divided into three basic groups: American Studies, concerned with themes that are related to America's development; World Culture, related to other cultures throughout the world; and Behavioral Sciences, that concentrate on the aspects of man's behavior as an individual and as part of a group. The program offers over twenty-five course selections, which range in levels from phase 1 (designed for students with reading, writing, and critical thinking difficulties to phase 5 (for students with excellent control of the basic skills).

The students seemed to like the new Social Studies curriculum and felt that it was more relevant to their interests and future needs.

student scientists solve solutions

The Science Department under the direction of Mr. Charles Ailsworth, expanded to provide a choice of nine subjects for students to select from. Approximately 1200 students participated in wide range of classes. The program was designed to suit the academic abilities of different students, as the classes were divided into three groups of General, Regular and Honors for most subject areas. The department also continued the sponsorship of the Science Club, which once again made its annual journey to Chicago to view the many museums.

With an increase in funds, the Science department was able to expand the curriculum through additional materials and activities. Included was the purchase of new equipment; the use of realistic specimens in experiments; and more field trips. One new teacher, Mr. Paul Turovaara, replaced Mr. Thomas Woodward, who passed away in July of 1972.

“all-business” are these students

Students preparing for business careers found themselves taking subjects such as bookkeeping, typing, shorthand, record keeping, business law, clerical training, office practice and retail sales. These courses are presented to the student so they can master the skills indicated in each course for the commercial field. Mr. George Kinsman is the head of the department assisted by five other teachers. They are Mr. Bernard Ackerman, Miss Mary Kay Bewalds, Mrs. Geraldine Kinney, Mrs. Nellie Smith and Mr. Roger Werly.

"let's drive right" is their goal

Defensive driving is just one of the many things stressed by department head Mr. Raymond and his assistant Mr. Lober. Here students are taught the basic concepts and the importance that is involved in being a good safe driver. The students not only learn from lectures but are given time to drive on their own on the range. They are also tested by their instructor on the traffic congested downtown area as well as out on the country roads. Cars used in this course are donated by local dealers.

preparing students for world of work

The program for educable students is conducted by Mrs. Megan Yeomans and Mr. Irvin Sutherland. Classes offered are Welding at Northwestern Michigan Tech Center, Vocational Reading, Vocational Math, Vocational English and Special Driver Education. Workstudy involves off-campus jobs with local employers. The emphasis is to provide every student with a saleable skill, so they may be prepared for the world of work. There are 31 students this year.

skills for success in home and family life are enjoyed

The Home Economics department, directed by Mrs. Winona Kirby, expanded this year to include the interests of many students with a new course, taught by Miss Linda Murphy, on consumer buying and fraud. Miss Burns, in addition to her duties as cheerleading coach, led five classes toward success in Home and Family Living. The informal course let students have a chance to release their tensions through discussion, and to learn more about themselves. The course was taught at two different levels. Mrs. Kirby had her schedule full with classes of Child Care and Development, and Senior Girls' Home Economics.

dreams and schemes and feeling proud . . .

In the art department, young artists are urged to let their minds wander in creating many new and imaginative projects. At times, students display their works throughout the school, which add interest to the dull cement walls. The classes haven't changed; the students in them have. "Students this year seem to have a more professional touch in their work" was the comment of art teacher Mr. Koschara.

pines lays it all out

The 1973 Pines was produced by a class of 25 energetic students. A year ago the Pines had two classes whose membership changed in mid-year, involving altogether, 150 students. This year's smaller group had to compensate for their numbers by working extra-hard, over 4600 hours, they estimate, for a larger-than-ever 288 page yearbook. This is believed to be one of the largest published in the state. Sue Stephens editor-in-chief, was famous for her armful of "pages" as the spring progressed into summer! Mark Kauffman, head photographer, was named the most developed senior boy. Jean Maslowski was business manager and made the books balance.

This Page—

1. Editor-in-chief Sue Stephens blankly listens to Steve Nixon's explanations.
2. Kathy Greilick ferociously flutters through her forgotten files.
3. Valda Schultz very swiftly verifies some vertical views.
4. Elizabeth Parker, faculty advisor, helps staff select pictures.

new process taxes staff

Journalism class required many written assignments covering the school scene, and students gradually learned the principles of reporting and feature writing. The paper was partially produced in the Graphic Arts department this year. After the copy was "set" on a composer in the Graphic Arts room, it was pasted into position by the B & G staff. Photography was handled within the class, mostly by Mike Huskins. Two editors carried the responsibility during the year: Molly Carroll the first semester, and Martin Sommerness, the second. Faculty advisor John Gerhardt became enthusiastic about writing and production problems during his first year of this assignment.

2. Editing takes lots of time and effort, requiring hours of planning!
3. Editor Sommerness followed editor Molly Carroll, the Black and Gold editor the first semester.
4. The light table is a powerful attraction for Mark Williamson and Lis Krans.

and at last came the spring

After a disappointingly short ski season, winter finally gave way to spring, and so suddenly that students grew a little dizzy! Absences from school soared for some, while others felt too lazy even to skip. But spring vacation, late in April, came just in time to save everyone from complete collapse. Then the inexorable countdown began of days-to-go before final exams, graduation and school's dismissal. All this to the sound of lawn mowers and birds' twittering, and the enjoyment of cool mornings, as daylight-saving time got us all to school extra early. The year's musical, "Oliver", came to a successful conclusion, final concerts were given; then the last competitions, including spring sports, were held; and, sooner than any one expected, the announcements began to be made of awards, honors, plans for the graduates, even as caps and gowns arrived for the ceremonial conclusion. Shown on this page are some typical candid photographs of scenes around the campus.

students from abroad add flavor to classes and parties

Youth for Understanding and Rotary International brought eleven students to Traverse City High School this year to participate in high school life and the family life of many T.C. families. Those from South America came in January for only a six-month stay; but those from Europe and Japan stayed a full school year. Not included in these pictures is Ulrike Eccher of Austria.

LOOK AT EACH OTHER...

We know a young man just out of school has more on his mind than just a job these days. He's concerned about his world. He's looking at the future. And he's looking for a way to do something about it.

We're looking at the future too. In fact we're dedicated to it. And we're looking for people who feel the same way.

You see, there's more to the Air Force than good pay, guaranteed jobs and valuable skills. There's also the satisfaction of doing something worthwhile and important.

But that's something you'll have to decide for yourself. It's easy to get the facts and there's no obligation. Contact your nearest Air Force Recruiter at

U.S.A.F. Recruiting Office
126 Boardman Ave.
946-6976

Go ahead . . . Take a good close look at us.
We'll look you over, too . . .

AND WE MIGHT BOTH FIND WHAT WE'RE LOOKING FOR

The Pines yearbook was finally completed after a year of revamping, rearranging, redrawing, retyping, all of which made it one of the largest and best yearbooks in the state of Michigan. This year we decided to add some luxuries in order to attract the students' interest. Many meaningful colored pictures were added and a very unique cover was designed by one of our photographers, Gregg Kauffman.

The emphasis throughout the book was on ALL the people of the school. We tried to represent activities, groups, clubs and the people that make up these organizations in our copy and in the pictures we chose. Everyone in the school was important, as observed by us, and status was ignored. This was how the book was planned. The theme "PEOPLE COME TOGETHER NOW" has a special meaning when you look at all the various faces in the beginning pages of the book. Everyone was considered equally important.

My thanks go out to the staff members, especially those who worked the two long weeks after school was out, and also a big thanks to Mrs. Parker, our advisor, who put in her help all along and especially at the end.

We've worked hard on this book, and I sincerely hope you, the readers, are as proud of it as we are, as a symbol of the quality of our school.
